CAPITAL DISTRICT UMW 2014 SPECIAL PROJECT

PROCLAIMING THE CHILDREN BEFORE THE LORD

For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake.

2 Corinthians 4:5

For a gift of $5, you can honor a child while helping a woman, child or youth in need. The child you honor will receive a card letting them know they have been honored and by whom.

All the proceeds from this project go to United Methodist Women Mission Giving.

To participate, please see Huntsie Strickland. Forms are also available from the back of the sanctuary or in the front office.

The children of Divine Street UMC have been honored by Paul Perry.

WELCOME TO ADRIAN BLUE, our summer intern from Duke Divinity School!

A native of Benson, North Carolina, Adrian is the fifth of seven children raised by Pastor Shirley and Mr. Caleb Blue. Adrian comes from a family of spiritual leaders; his mother, sister and two brothers are Pastors and Evangelists. He fellowshiped with Revival Deliverance Center of Benson, North Carolina from birth until high school graduation. In 1990, Adrian relocated to Sanford, Florida, and he attributes a major portion of his spiritual development to his covering by Overseer Carrie Buie Bryant. In 1996, Adrian relocated back to Benson and resumed his fellowship with Revival Deliverance Center. His spiritual trajectory has included Deacon, Elder and Associate Pastor under leadership of his mentor, Bishop James Avery Buie.

Adrian is a Board Member and the Chief Financial Officer of the Revival Deliverance Center. He earned a Bachelors of Arts in Business Administration with a concentration in Management from the University of North Carolina at Pembroke. In the fall of 2013, Adrian enrolled full-time in Duke University Divinity School to broaden his experience through the Word of God and to better support and assist the Bishop in pushing forth the vision that he has established for the ministry.

Adrian is happily married for the past eleven years to Katina Williams Blue, and they reside in Garner, North Carolina. Adrian has a servant's spirit and a love for studying God's Word.
